The 2022 election cycle will be pivotal and we must start now to prepare for it!

1) There is a training class you can start anytime and go at your own pace online through the National Democratic Training Committee (NDTC). Go to their website at traindemocrats.org/

2) NDTC (above) has paired with the ILDCC to have a class on 5/18 & 5/19 from 5:30-8:30. Sign up at traindemocrats.org/event/springfield-illinois-5-16-2020/

3) Or if you want to integrate training from many great resources, and wish to also work with a group virtually, sign up for the SUMMER CAMPAIGN SCHOOL at bit.ly/summercandidatetraining.

For information on requirements for many local level positions, including residency, consult these resources:

State of Illinois Candidate's Guide, which is available online from several election-related sites including elections.il.gov/Downloads/ElectionOperations/PDF/2020CanGuide.pdf This guide is updated every year and is an official reference from the State Board of Elections on running for elected local offices in Illinois.

The DuPage County Election Division at dupageco.org/election/ (which is part of the County Clerk's Office) is also a useful online resource with the ability to answer many questions over the phone.
